Introduction to the Tavistock Institute

Founded in 1947 in London, the Tavistock Institute of Human Relations originated as a nonprofit organization dedicated to applying social science to organizational development, community work, and social policy. Initially linked to the Tavistock Clinic—famous for pioneering work in psychotherapy and psychiatry—the institute aimed to improve human relations and organizational efficiency through research and consultancy. Over the decades, the Tavistock Institute expanded its scope to include studies on social systems, group dynamics, and mass psychology. Its influence grew in various fields, including government, military, education, and corporate sectors. While many recognize it as a legitimate think tank promoting social betterment, conspiracy theories have emerged, suggesting that the institute secretly manipulates society to serve hidden agendas.
