Core Concepts in Contract Law According to McKendrick

Ewan McKendrick's work explores various fundamental concepts that define contract law, including:

Offer and Acceptance

Definition and Significance

Offer and acceptance are the foundational elements that create a binding agreement. McKendrick emphasizes understanding these concepts not just as formalities but as processes rooted in mutual intention and understanding.

Key Points

1. An offer must be clear, unequivocal, and communicated to the offeree.
2. Acceptance must mirror the offer; any variation constitutes a counter-offer.

3. Communication of acceptance is crucial, and the "postal rule" or instantaneous communication methods have specific implications.

Intention to Create Legal Relations

Legal Presumptions

McKendrick discusses the importance of the parties' intentions in binding agreements, noting different presumptions in commercial versus social/domestic contexts.

Practical Considerations

1. In commercial agreements, there is a presumption of intent to create legal relations.
2. In social or domestic arrangements, the presumption is usually the opposite unless proven otherwise.

Consideration

Definition and Role

Consideration refers to something of value exchanged between parties. McKendrick explores its role as a necessary element for enforceability and examines its evolving status in modern law.

Critical Analysis

1. Historically viewed as a requirement for enforceability.
2. Modern developments have seen consideration become less rigid, especially with the advent of estoppel and other doctrines.
3. Cases like Williams v. Roffey Bros demonstrate shifts in the traditional view of consideration.

Other Key Elements in Contract Formation

- Capacity: The legal ability of parties to enter into a contract. - Consent: Genuine agreement without duress, undue influence, misrepresentation, or mistake. - Legality: The contract’s purpose must be lawful.

Performance and Breach of Contract

Performance of Contracts

McKendrick highlights the importance of complete and timely performance, emphasizing the doctrine of substantial performance and its implications.

Breach and Remedies

1. Breach occurs when a party fails to perform contractual obligations.
2. Remedies include damages, specific performance, or rescission.
3. Compensatory damages aim to restore the injured party to the position they would have been in had the breach not occurred.

Termination of Contracts and Discharge

Methods of Discharge

McKendrick discusses various ways contracts can be discharged, including:

1. Performance
2. Agreement of the parties
3. Frustration
4. Operation of law

Frustration and Its Limits

Frustration occurs when an unforeseen event makes performance impossible or radically different. McKendrick examines case law such as Taylor v. Caldwell and the doctrine’s scope and limitations.

Vitiating Factors and Contract Validity

Misrepresentation, Duress, and Undue Influence

McKendrick emphasizes the importance of genuine consent, exploring how these factors can render a contract void or voidable.

Illegality and Public Policy

Contracts that violate laws or public policy are unenforceable. McKendrick discusses the scope of illegality and how courts assess public policy considerations.

Special Types of Contracts

Contracts of Sale and Service

McKendrick analyzes specific rules and doctrines associated with sales and service contracts, including the Sale of Goods Act and relevant case law.

Unfair Terms and Consumer Contracts

The development of consumer protection laws, such as the Unfair Contract Terms Act and the Consumer Rights Act, are discussed in relation to McKendrick’s views on fairness and good faith.

Impact of European Law and International Perspectives

He acknowledges the influence of European Union directives and international conventions on UK contract law, emphasizing the importance of harmonization and adaptability.
