The Significance of August Wilson and the Play's Context

August Wilson: A Literary Titan

August Wilson (1945–2005) is widely celebrated for his storytelling prowess and his ability to depict the African American experience with honesty and artistry. Over his lifetime, Wilson authored ten plays, each set in a different decade of the 20th century, collectively known as the Pittsburgh Cycle or Century Cycle. These plays chronicle the evolution of Black life, culture, and struggles across decades, with Fences set in the 1950s.

Historical and Cultural Backdrop

Fences is set during a period of significant social change in America—post-World War II, when African Americans were fighting for civil rights and economic equality. The play reflects the tensions between traditional values and the push for progress, highlighting issues such as racial discrimination, generational conflict, and personal dreams versus societal limitations.

The Plot and Main Characters

Overview of the Play’s Narrative

Fences revolves around Troy Maxson, a former baseball star who now works as a garbage collector in Pittsburgh. The narrative explores his complex relationships with his family—particularly his wife Rose and son Cory—and delves into Troy's internal struggles, ambitions, and regrets. The title metaphorically refers to the fences Troy builds around himself and his loved ones—both literal and figurative—symbolizing emotional barriers and societal constraints.

The play's structure is a series of monologues, dialogues, and reflective moments that build toward a climax revealing the depth of Troy's character and the consequences of his actions.

Key Characters

1. Troy Maxson: The protagonist; a proud, stubborn man haunted by his past and limited by racial barriers.
2. Rose Maxson: Troy's wife; nurturing and morally grounded, she seeks stability and love.
3. Cory Maxson: Troy's son; optimistic and athletic, aspiring to a college football scholarship.
4. Lyons Maxson: Troy's son from a previous relationship; a jazz musician striving for independence.

2. Baseball: Represents lost opportunities and racial exclusion.
