Historical Context and Development

The Need for a Clearer Presentation of Doctrine

Throughout its long history, the Catholic Church has faced numerous challenges and periods of doctrinal clarification. The Second Vatican Council (1962-1965) marked a significant turning point, emphasizing the importance of engaging with contemporary culture and promoting renewed catechesis. Following this, the Church recognized the necessity of a comprehensive, updated presentation of its teachings that could serve both the faithful and the wider world.

Creation of the Compendium

In 1997, Pope John Paul II issued the motu proprio Fidei Depositum, calling for a new catechism to be produced. This led to the development of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, published in 1992. Building upon this, the Compendium of the Catechism was released in 2005, offering a more concise summary suitable for quick reference and wider dissemination. The compendium was drafted by a team of theologians and experts, guided by the Holy See, to ensure doctrinal accuracy and clarity.
