Contractual vs. No-Contract Memberships

Understanding whether your membership is contractual or month-to-month is vital in knowing if a cancellation fee applies.

Month-to-Month Memberships

- Most Planet Fitness memberships, including Black Card plans, are month-to-month. - No long-term contract binds you. - Cancelling is straightforward and typically incurs no penalty beyond the current billing cycle.

Contractual Memberships

- Some locations or promotional offers may require signing a contract with a specified term (e.g., 12 months). - Early termination before the contract end date often incurs a fee, which can range from $40 to $58, depending on location. - Always review your signed agreement for specific terms. Cancellation Policies and

Potential Fees

Standard Cancellation

- No fees generally apply if you are on a month-to-month plan. - Cancellation effective at the end of your current billing cycle.

Early Termination Due to Contract

- If bound by a contract, early cancellation might involve a fee. - Typical fees range from $40 to $58. - Some contracts may include a "cooling-off" period, allowing cancellation within a specific window without penalty.

Special Circumstances

- Medical issues, military deployment, or relocation may qualify you for fee waivers or special cancellation policies. - It's advisable to provide documentation such as a doctor's note or military orders.

Billing After Cancellation

- Ensure that no further charges occur post-cancellation. - If billed erroneously, dispute the charge with your bank and the club.

What About Pausing or Freezing

Memberships?

Some members might consider freezing their membership instead of canceling outright. - Planet Fitness generally does not offer a membership freeze option as standard. - Some locations may allow temporary holds for specific reasons (e.g., medical issues). - Always inquire directly with your club about available options and policies.
